As you walk through narrow alleys and hidden squares, you will listen to songs specifically composed for this tour, bringing to life legendary tales connected to the places you will visit. Our storyteller will guide the group through the historic center, revealing the city's secrets, the traditions of its people, and the events that have shaped Genoa over the centuries. Each song and story will transport you to another era, allowing you to experience the city not only through its written history but also through the music and oral tradition that are part of it.
