Travel Notes

Casone di Profecchia

The meeting point will be directly at the Portoferraio port at 2:00 PM, where our riding day will begin. Thanks to the assistance of our dedicated shuttle with a bike trailer, we will minimize asphalt climbs, focusing instead on a mix of single trails that follow the mountain ridge and offer breathtaking descents. We will start from Monte Tondo, where a full day of riding awaits us, mostly above 1400 meters in altitude, with some peaks reaching over 2000 meters. During the day, we will stop for lunch at one of the refuges along the way, where it will also be possible to recharge E-MTB batteries if necessary. The trails we will tackle are not particularly exposed, but they require good balance and technical preparation. Depending on the group's level, the difficulty of the trails can be adjusted. For the more daring, there is the possibility of challenging the summit of Monte Prado, which at 2054 meters offers an incredible view and a true test of skill. Our arrival is scheduled for around 4:00 PM at Casone di Profecchia, a refuge located at 1400 meters above sea level, where we will spend the night surrounded by unspoiled nature. Our arrival is scheduled for around 4:00 PM at Casone di Profecchia, a mountain lodge located at 1,400 meters above sea level. Free dinner and overnight stay

Duration:

Height difference: 1550 m

Accommodation: Casone di Profecchia

Castelnuovo

After breakfast, we will continue our adventure by riding along the ridge that marks the border between Tuscany and Emilia Romagna, heading towards Passo della Porticciola. The trails we encounter will be less technical than those of the previous day, mostly not exceeding an S2 grade. During the descent, we will venture into a dense birch forest, where the trails will take on a more natural character, with some S3 sections that will test your skills. From Casone di Profecchia to Castelnuovo in Garfagnana, we will tackle over 1800 meters of descent, navigating ridge trails and the lush woods of the area. Depending on the group's abilities and fatigue, our guide Marco will propose several variations, ranging from smoother, well-trodden trails to more technical and rugged sections. We will conclude the day by returning to Castelnuovo, where we expect to arrive around 3:00 PM, followed by a free dinner and an overnight stay.

✓ Features of the trip

This tour is designed for intermediate riders who feel comfortable handling different types of terrain and conditions, such as technical singletrack, muddy, dry, and uneven trails. Participants should have a good command of braking techniques, gear usage, and be able to navigate more challenging turns and descents safely. The tour is suitable for those who regularly ride mountain bikes or e-mountain bikes, with a good physical level and technical preparation to tackle moderate technical features and demanding trails. Expert guides will accompany you along the route, providing constant support. During the tour, you will have the opportunity to meet other participants from different countries, so respect personal space and enjoy the experience. The organization is managed by local guides and operators, selected to ensure a unique and engaging experience.
