Itinerary

Travel Notes

Puerto Montt

Meeting at the hotel in Puerto Montt, a Chilean port city, and bicycle assembly. Welcome dinner to get to know the group and the staff. Overnight stay at the hotel.

Duration:

Accommodation: Puerto Montt

Puelo

We leave the city to immerse ourselves in the spectacular landscapes of the Reloncaví Fjord. After a short boat transfer, the ride unfolds along gravel and paved roads that follow crystal-clear waters and lush forests of giant ferns and nalcas, trees typical of this region. Arriving in Puelo brings us into contact with a small village that preserves the authenticity of Chilean Patagonia, with an overnight stay in cozy bungalows surrounded by nature.

Duration:

Accommodation: Puelo

Ensenada

The journey continues toward the end of the Reloncaví Fjord, passing through landscapes of rare beauty where the deep green of fern and nalca forests blends with the blue of the ocean. Along the way, you pass through the picturesque village of Cochamó, known as the "Patagonia of the Alps" for its natural grandeur. The day ends on the shores of Lake Llanquihue, where cozy bungalows offer a peaceful and scenic retreat.

Duration:

Accommodation: Ensenada

Aguas Calientes

The ride crosses a land rich in lakes nestled among mountains and the rainforests of Pérez Rosales National Park. The vivid colors of Lakes Rupanco and Puyehue create a breathtaking backdrop, while the fresh, pure air revitalizes the senses. In the afternoon, you can enjoy the famous natural hot springs of Aguas Calientes—a relaxing experience that rejuvenates both body and mind after the day's effort. Overnight stay in bungalows.

Duration:

Accommodation: Aguas Calientes

Villa La Angostura

You tackle the majestic Puyehue Pass, the connecting point between Chile and Argentina, surrounded by a mountain landscape of extraordinary beauty. After the climb, a scenic descent leads to Lakes Espejo, Correntoso, and Nahuel Huapi—shimmering bodies of water that tell the geological story of these lands. Arrival in Villa La Angostura, a charming town on Lake Nahuel Huapi, marks the end of the day, with accommodation in comfortable hotels.

Duration:

Accommodation: Villa La Angostura

Villa La Angostura

A day dedicated to rest or to exploring on foot the Quetrihué Peninsula, famous for its Arrayanes forest—trees with reddish trunks and velvety bark, a unique ecosystem in the world. The 12 km trek immersed in nature offers unforgettable views, and those who prefer can return by boat, enjoying a pleasant journey across the lake. Evening and overnight stay at the hotel.

Duration:

Accommodation: Villa La Angostura

San Martín de los Andes

Through Nahuel Huapi and Lanín National Parks, you follow the famous "Camino de los Siete Lagos" (Seven Lakes Route), renowned for its lake landscapes, conifer forests, and panoramic views of the Andes. The route offers encounters with pristine and diverse nature, featuring shimmering waters, clear skies, and majestic mountains. The day ends in the peaceful town of San Martín de los Andes, where you stay overnight in a hotel.

Duration:

Accommodation: San Martín de los Andes

Bariloche

The final day of cycling leads along Lake Meliquina and the Córdoba Pass, crossing mountainous areas and crystal-clear rivers. The final descent passes through unique rock formations and follows the course of the Limay River, offering spectacular views all the way to the arrival in San Carlos de Bariloche. Here, the journey concludes with a farewell dinner in a warm and welcoming atmosphere.

Note: it is possible to extend the trip with an extra day to explore the most beautiful and scenic spots around Bariloche.

Duration:

Accommodation: Bariloche

✓ Features of the trip

This itinerary is open to active travelers of all ages, with good physical fitness and a spirit of adventure. You will ride through fjords, lakes, and mountains along a route that alternates between paved and gravel sections, accompanied by support vehicles and experienced guides. You will share the experience in a small group (maximum of 8 participants), riding alongside cyclists on both traditional and e-bikes. Respecting everyone's pace and personal space is essential to maintaining a friendly and enjoyable atmosphere throughout the journey. The tour is organized and operated by carefully selected local guides and partners, who know the region inside out and are skilled at making every stage of the trip truly unique.

✓ General travel information

A valid passport or ID card is required, with an expiration date at least six months beyond the return date. The itinerary may be subject to changes, before or during the trip, due to weather conditions or logistical needs. Accommodation will be in good-quality hotels and bungalows; in some smaller locations, the availability of lodging may be limited. Temperatures can range from 5°C to 25°C, with the possibility of strong winds and sudden rain, so it is important to be prepared for varying weather conditions. We recommend bringing a helmet, lights, a water bottle or hydration pack, and a basic repair kit. A support vehicle will remain close to the cyclists at all times to transport luggage and provide basic mechanical assistance, with a spare bike available for the group. Any food intolerances or dietary requirements should be communicated at the time of booking; we will do our best to accommodate them, although we cannot guarantee full compliance.
